Carley Schelck is the inspiration behind the urban element concept and resides as the business's Culinary Events Director. She brings over 18 years of hospitality, food & beverage and hotel management to the company, combining her passion for "all things delicious" with her business savvy to create an entirely unique event space dedicated to the culinary arts.

the urban element burst onto the scene in 2005 and has quickly become a culinary destination in Ottawa, providing clients a niche alternative venue in the city. Invested in the personal approach to event planning while creating unique culinary experiences, Carley embraces a commitment to providing clients with turnkey event solutions in an environment that is warm, welcoming and service driven.
