I am a mother of two, and a plaintiff-side personal injury (PI) lawyer. Together with my husband / law partner Richard Auger, I own and operate a litigation boutique law firm, Auger Hollingsworth.

I have authored two books: An Injured Victim's Guide to Fair Compensation and Crash Course: A Savvy Woman's Guide to Ontario Car Accident Cases.

Born and raised in Ottawa, I have a B.A. (Hons.) in English from Queen's University and earned my M.A. and law degree from the University of Ottawa. I represent clients in both French and English.

I am a committed hockey Mom and can be found at various Ottawa arenas most nights of the week.
